The Problem Is Not the Kurdish Problem!

The Real Problem Is the Occupation of the Lands of the Ummah, the Exploitation of the Wealth of the Ummah by the Colonial Capitalist States, and the Problem of Domination.

News:

President Erdoğan stated during the AK Party Trabzon 8th Ordinary Congress that the end of the road has been reached for the terrorist organization, and said that "Conflict, violence and instability are a thing of the past, and he definitely will reach the goal of Türkiye without terrorism, in harmony."

Comment:

President Erdoğan's rhetoric of a terror-free Türkiye is unrequited. For decades, the promise to end terrorism has been voiced by many governments. Although the governments sometimes used democratic means and sometimes military methods, no serious success has been achieved.

So, why has this problem still not been solved despite the fact that 67 governments have passed in Türkiye today, the parliamentary system and the presidential system have been tried, and despite the fact that the governments have used many state opportunities to end terrorism? There are several main factors to this. Some of these include:

1- The fact that the secular democratic capitalist system, which produces all the problems and crises, is still being implemented.

2- The continuation of friendship, bilateral political and strategic agreements with all Western states, especially the colonialist kafir America, which finances terrorism.

3- The fact that the embassies and foreign intelligence services of the colonialist kafir states, which are hotbeds of terrorism, are running wild in the country.

4- The fact that the military bases of foreign states are open in the country.

5- The fact that the rulers in the Muslim lands are a useful pawn for the colonialists and mortgaged their will to the Western states.

For all these reasons, it is impossible to put an end to terrorism in Türkiye or other Muslim lands and to stabilize the countries.

If so, what steps should be taken to end terrorism?

1- First of all, it is necessary to imbed the secular capitalist regime in history, which is the source of all crises and causes the instability of the country, and which is the system of the colonial kuffar. Because this spoiling system gives the colonial kuffar the opportunity to exploit and occupy countries, and to cause political and economic crises in countries. At the same time, this system prevents the reunification of the Ummah by bringing poisonous ideas such as nationalism, statism, tribalism and nation-state to the fore. Therefore, it is necessary to get rid of these dangerous and poisonous ideas of Western origin as soon as possible and to reintroduce the understanding of panislamism to the Ummah.

2- Again, the doors of military bases, embassies and branches of foreign intelligence units that feed and source terrorism should be locked immediately.

3- Treaties with colonial states must be torn up. As a matter of fact, friendly relations with the United States, which has supported the terrorist organization PYD/YPG for years and provided it with tons of military ammunition, still continue.

4- Of course, the most important and radical solution is to create a strong public opinion within the Ummah for the establishment of the Khilafah (Caliphate) State as soon as possible, which will treat and solve these and similar problems in a correct and healthy way.

In the last century of the Muslim Ummah, there has never been a shortage of crises and terrorism in the lexicon of the Ummah. A century ago, when our Khilafah was present, Arabs and Persians, Turks and Kurds, Bosnians and Circassians always lived a safe, fair and happy life in brotherhood. No one was even able to sow discord among the Ummah. However, when our Khilafah collapsed and artificial borders were drawn between brothers, the colonial states succeeded in introducing non-Islamic ideas into these lands through their apparatus in the region. It was then that they were able to split and divide the Ummah.

When our Islamic Khilafah was present, the Kurds and other groups were an essential part of the Ummah. Especially today, those who say that there is a Kurdish issue, those who say that the Kurds are not given their rights, or those who say that there is terrorism, should look back together at the glorious history of Islam! Kurdish Muslims, in particular, never fought against the state during the Ottoman Khilafah. They did not renounce obedience to this state, it did not even cross their minds to establish a separate state, let alone separate from it.

In fact, the issue known as the Kurdish problem emerged with the history of the Republic. It continued as a bitter legacy of the Republic. In the Ottoman Khilafah, there was no such problem or concept. In fact, it has always been the colonial kuffar and their useful apparatus who have politically scratched this problem in order to realize their own interests and affairs and to consolidate their dominance. Because these kafir states are the source of trouble.

Therefore, the problem is not the Kurdish problem, the real problem is the occupation of the lands of the Ummah, the exploitation of the wealth of the Ummah by the colonial capitalist states, and the problem of domination.
