Another Pathway for Fujoor in the Blessed Land – Palestine

News:

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT: A biking expedition held in Ramallah sponsored by the Danish House in Palestine and pictured on Facebook by the Danish House in Palestine featuring men and women closely mixing with one another, women and men dressed Islamically inappropriately held for the sake of freedom of movement in the occupied lands by the Jewish entity. Comment:

Blurring the lines beyond recognition of Islam from its hayaat and the Hukm Shari' in the sacred lands of the Muslim Ummah and the open doors of fujoor with the media spotlights to spread the event and be tolerated for all.

Men and women of all ages alongside one another ... women without hijab wearing skintight active wear in the streets, training carried out by men and women for one another, balancing women on their bikes as if it is something so normal ... where is this? in the Blessed Land of Palestine! All in the sake for "Palestinian right freedom of movement." What movement are they referring to? From Gaza to the Quds, Hebron to Haifa? Without the forces of the Jewish entity blocking the entrances? Or is it from Ramallah to Nablus within the limits of the occupied territories? So when one puts forth such a major feat, one would imagine tanks and the presence of the armybut what's flashed before our eyes: BIKES! Bikes yes bikes and not only that but women on display and men weaving among the women of all ages again for the sake of "Palestinian right freedom of movement"!

We will leave the ludicrous idea of Palestinian right freedom of movement for another topic to be explored with the role of the Muslim armies' duty to liberate the whole Blessed Land- Palestine.

Back to the scene of the bike marathon, leaving many thoughts swirling in the protective and god-fearing Muslim's mind...

Diyathah, ikhtalat, fujoor, tabbaraj.

All on full display sponsored by western states like the Danish House in Palestine etc. Why are funds so readily available to such projects and events yet little funds for their own domestic issues??? Here lies the heart of the matter ... to destroy all Islamic appearances and links to the Muslims' Aqeedah to detach the religion from the society, publicly accept and normalize such wild actions through heavily sponsored events all to etch away at the Aqeedah and what is to be viewed as the new normal all furthering the hidden aims of these sponsoring states. Removing Muslims from their Islam to the point of beyond recognition. Pushing the wedge further into the heart of the Muslims both literally in the Blessed Land – Palestine the third holiest place for Muslims and figuratively splitting the minds of the Muslim youth into accepting such western norms as their own.

May Allah Al Muntaqim purify the Blessed Land of such filth the land where Salahidun refused to laugh while it was under the clutch of the Crusaders until he liberated it himself. How can we as the ones protective of our Muslim sisters remain idle while their minds are attacked and their bodies are on display for all to see?! How can we as the ones protective of our Muslim brothers remain idle while their minds are attacked and they are pushed to carry out such cunning actions?! This is making of the dayooth! Ibn al-Qayyim said, "And the Dayooth (the man with no jealousy over the women in his family) is the most vile of Allah's creation, and Jannah is forbidden for him, (because of his lack of Gheerah – jealousy)". This is the making of the secular free thinker looking at others without any sentiment of having responsibility for others in society ...do as you please just mind your own business. This is the demise of a society and not in any society but in the Blessed Land of Palestine.

Women without hayaat, men without hayaat. Hayaat is the self-respect and the shyness held in high esteem by Islamic values. Anyone who acts without any regulation to one's Islamic provisions become reduced to lowly creatures and the consequences are so much severe than one can imagine because this does not only stop here but has a domino effect. Who knows what is in the upcoming agendas ... perhaps an open swim competition? Mixed camping overnight trips? La halwa wala quwata illa billah
